Specifications

06070/000/005 Rock HD85/140 5 Litre

The Rock SD Gear Oil Range are high performance axle lubricants developed using high quality raw materials.

They are intended for moderate to highly loaded gears and axles found in a wide range of on-road and offroad driveline applications where API GL-5 performance is required.

Features:

The technology employed within Rock SD Gear Oils is suitable for use in a very wide range of vehicle applications.

Long life additives and high quality base oils ensure long-term protection of gear components allowing extended drain capability.

High performance extreme pressure additive chemistry provides outstanding resistance to pitting, scoring and wear.

SD Gear Oils are also suitable for use in general gear sets such as those found in ancillary equipment and some industrial equipment.

Meets the following specifications:

API GL-5
